Register now for the GAA Annual Meeting and Banquet

Angus enthusiasts are invited to attend the 2009 Georgia Angus Association (GAA) Annual Meeting and Banquet set for Saturday, January 31, 2009. The event will be held at the Classic Center in Athens.

The evening will begin at 5:00 p.m. with the annual meeting where committee chairpersons will recap 2008 activities, cocktail hour at 6:00 p.m., and banquet at 7:00 p.m. The banquet will feature a steak dinner, presentation of awards, announcement of Miss Georgia Angus, Georgia Angus Princess and GAA Member of the Year, and the sale of the 2009-10 GAA Directory ads. The 2009-10 GAA Board of Directors will be announced too.

In addition, the Georgia Junior Angus Association will showcase the 2009 National Junior Angus Show to be held in Perry. The official artwork created for the show logo by artist C.J. Brown will be auctioned off.

Adult buffet dinners cost $22.00 and children's (12 and under) buffet dinners cost $10.00 if purchased no later than Tuesday, January 27. All orders received after this date or at the door will cost an additional $10.00 per plate. Please pre-register for this event to help the banquet committee allow for adequate space and food. All reserved banquet tickets will be available at the door at 6:00 p.m.

A block of rooms have been reserved at the Hilton Garden Inn in Athens located directly across the street from The Classic Center. Call the hotel directly at 706-353-6800 and ask for the Angus block rate. The hotel is located at 390 East Washington Street, Athens, GA 30601.

The GAA Board of Directors hope you participate at this year's event! If you have any questions, please contact Christy Page at 706-387-0656 or info@georgiaangus.org. Please plan to bring a door prize to this year's event!

Letter from your President

Greetings to each of you. I hope that you have all had a blessed Christmas and that your 2009 is happy, healthy and prosperous.

The annual meeting of the American Angus Association was held in Louisville in November. I would like to thank the delegates and alternates who made the trip to Louisville to represent the breeders of Georgia. While in Louisville, the juniors kicked off the Embryo Lottery for the 2009 show. I would like to thank everyone who helped put the Embryo packages together and the McMahan family from Arkansas for helping put together the brochure.

The Annual meeting for the Georgia Angus Association (GAA) will be held on Saturday, January 31 at the Classic Center in Athens. We will announce the new board of directors and Chuck Idone will take the reins of the Georgia Angus Association as its next president. Please throw your support behind Chuck and ask him what you can do to help. Thanks goes out to the banquet committee for all of the hard work that they are doing to get this event ready.

Since this will be my last article as your president, I would like to take this time to let you all know that I have enjoyed serving as your president. I would like to thank the board of directors and Chuck Idone, who have served along with me. I would also like to thank Christy Page for all of the hard work that she puts into serving the GAA. Christy is the most visible face of our Association and what she does for us is often taken for granted. Please take the time to tell her how much you appreciate what she does.

I guess that it is in God's perfect timing that my term is up. As Katie begins her year as the 2009 Miss American Angus and begins to travel across the country, she has to have a chaperone everywhere she goes according to the guidelines set by the American Angus Auxiliary. On the day of our annual meeting, she and I will actually be flying back from Fort Worth where she will be attending the Texas Angus Association Annual Meeting and Sale as part of the Fort Worth Stock Show. I look forward to sharing this year with her as it has been her lifelong dream to serve as Miss American Angus.

We are also less than 200 days away from hosting the 2009 National Junior Angus Show. It is "Show Time" as they say. Let's step up and show the rest of the country our beautiful state and the wonderful Angus breeders who call it home.

If I can help you in any way, please don't hesitate to give me a call at 706-369-1456 or email me at gazdacattleco@bellsouth.net.

May God Bless You!

Symposium features ways to improve reproductive efficiency in beef cattle

Nearly 200 producers, veterinarians, researchers, artificial insemination technicians and Extension specialists met in Fort Collins, Colo., Dec. 2-3 to discuss ways to control and improve reproductive success in beef cattle. Presentations at the "Robert E. Taylor Memorial Symposium: Applied Reproductive Strategies in Beef Cattle" ranged from improving pregnancy rates in natural-service programs to opportunities for using DNA technology to improve reproductive efficiency.

Tuesday morning workshops were designed to improve understanding of the physiological processes of the estrous cycle, currently available procedures to synchronize estrus and ovulation, and the proper application of these systems. Tuesday afternoon's presenters explored the role of management and nutrition on reproductive rates.

Highlighting Tuesday's sessions were a keynote address by Ivan Rush, professor emeritus with the University of Nebraska, discussing why commercial cattlemen have been slow to adopt AI as a management tool and a producer panel describing the benefits and limitations of AI in three real-world settings.

Presenters Wednesday addressed male fertility, procedural and health-related factors affecting reproductive rates, as well as the value of using improved genetics and a futuristic look at potential advancements in assessing reproductive traits in beef cattle.

Visit the symposium newsroom at www.AppliedReproStrategies.com for summaries of the presentations, along with accompanying PowerPoint and audio files.

The symposium is co-sponsored by Colorado State University and the Beef Reproduction Task Force, which is comprised of Extension animal scientists from Kansas State University, the University of Nebraska, South Dakota State University, Iowa State University, the University of Idaho, the University of Illinois, the University of Florida and the University of Missouri with support from several industry sponsors.

you have not turned in your nomination form and would like to consign cattle, please contact the GAA office immediately at 706-387-0656 or info@georgiangus.org. Screening of the cattle will take place in late January.

This year's sale committee is being co-chaired by John Jarrell, Butler, and Chuck Idone, Macon. If you have any questions about the sale, please feel free to contact the committee, the GAA office, or Jeremy Haag with the American Angus Hall of Fame at 816-516-1309.

This sale is a great opportunity for all Angus breeders to get involved. Whether you are a breeder from a smaller Angus operation or raise hundreds of cattle a year, this sale is for you. The sale committee is expecting another great set of quality cattle with excellent pedigrees and EPDs, and is anticipating a large crowd to be in attendance. Mark your calendars now for this exciting Angus event and Angus offerings!

GAA in search of new Angus royalty

The Georgia Angus Association (GAA) will crown two ambassadors for the state association on January 31 during the GAA Banquet. Miss Georgia Angus is eligible to those young ladies between the ages of 15 and 21, and Georgia Angus Princess is eligible to those young ladies between the ages of 9 and 14, as of January 1, 2009. These young ladies must be a member of the Georgia Junior Angus Association and their parents must be members of the GAA.

The role of Miss Georgia Angus and Georgia Angus Princess is to promote Angus cattle and Angus activities, and to represent the state Angus association. These ambassadors should represent the GAA and the Angus breed by attending shows, field days, banquets, meetings, etc., at their own expense.

If you are interested in serving as Miss Georgia Angus or Georgia Angus Princess, please contact Christy McCravy, GAA queens committee chairperson, no later than January 16 at 770-258-9411 or csmmcraavy@gfb.org.

This is a great opportunity for junior Angus members to get involved!

Major funding for 2009 NJAS in progress

Opportunities available in Denver with pregnancies and more!

By Katie Gazda, 2009 NJAS Junior Co-Chair

Season's Greetings from the Classic City! As the clock struck midnight on New Year's Eve it really sank in that 2009 has arrived and that in a mere six months the Georgia Junior Angus Association (GJAA) will be hosting eight hundred eager Angus exhibitors as they make their way across the country for a Sweet Southern Showdown in Perry for the 2009 National Junior Angus Show (NJAS).

This past November, Georgia kicked off the Embryo Lottery Program on a national level at the Angus Reception at the North American International Livestock Exposition in Louisville, Ky. Huge thanks go out to Julie McMahon-French and Susan Taylor for coordinating the advertisement of what is one of our biggest fundraisers for the NJAS. Without their creative efforts, the Embryo Lottery program would not be where it is today! Also, thanks to the 2009 Embryo Lottery Committee: Mike Jones, John Morgan, David Gazda, Christy Page, American Angus Hall of Fame, and Cotton & Associates.

If you are interested in helping sell tickets for the lottery or purchasing a ticket, please contact Christy Page at info@georgiangus.org or see anyone on the NJAS Executive Committee and we would be glad to set you up. There will be a total of 1000 tickets sold for $100 each with forty-five packages up for grabs.

However, the fun didn't stop in Louisville. In just a short few days, we will be busy promoting and fundraising for the NJAS at the National Western Stock Show in Denver, Co. Fundraising efforts will start on January 14 at the Trowbridge & Friends Sale where two pregnancies will be auctioned off with all proceeds going to the GJAA. One of these pregnancies is donated by Sinclair Cattle Co. of Warfordsburg, Penn. and the other one is donated by Whitestone Farm of Aldie, Va.

At the Angus Reception in Denver on January 15, Georgia will be selling a pregnancy generously donated by Gardiner Angus Ranch of Ashland, Kan. We will also be selling three autographed NASCAR shirts donated by Richard Childers Racing and Yadkin River Angus of Clemmons, N.C. Last but not least, we will be auctioning off the premium pages in the 2009 NJAS show program.

Each of these auctions is made possible by generous supporters of the National and Georgia Junior Angus Associations, and we are very grateful! If you are interested in purchasing any of the above pregnancies, donated items, or premium page in the NJAS show program, please contact David Gazda at 706-296-7846, Christy Page at 770-307-7178 or info@georgiaangus.org, or Jeremy Haag at 816-516-1309. All information is available online at www.njas.info.

Finally, January 1 marked Day 200 in the countdown for a Sweet Southern Showdown. As we cross off the days and find ourselves closer to July, there is still a lot of work to be done in making sure that Georgia keeps its good reputation for offering southern hospitality and an amazing week in Perry! Please do not hesitate to offer your time and talent towards making this show a success - it will definitely pay off in the end! If you have any questions, please contact me at kgazda@uga.edu and I hope to see you all soon!

The Junior Corner - News from the Georgia Junior Angus Association

Hello everyone! I can't believe that another year has come and gone! We had a great year in 2008 and I am expecting an even better year in 2009.

With all of the events that the GJAA has to offer for the new year, I thought this would be a great opportunity to remind everyone of those events.

The GAA Annual Meeting and Banquet will be held at The Classic Center in Athens, Ga. on January 31, 2009 at 7:00 pm. A GJAA meeting will be held that same night at 6:00 p.m. prior to the banquet. I encourage all of you to participate as the juniors will be presenting a recap of 2008 junior activities and showcasing the 2009 NJAS. Additionally, we will have some reserved tables for our juniors to sit at.

Also, please don't forget to get your membership dues in by February 1. Anyone needing to pay dues should have received an membership invoice along with this newsletter. If you are a paid member by February 1, you could receive extra premiums at the State Show.

Last and certainly not least, I am certain that none of you would want to miss the GJAA meeting at the State Show on February 19. It will be held in the Hoof & Horn Room at 5:00 p.m. or immediately following the the County Group of Five competition.

I can't wait to see everyone at these upcoming events, and good luck at the State Show!

Katie Lents
GJAA President

What's happening with the NJAA

I hope this letter finds you doing well and I hope that you enjoyed a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

This year is sure to be the greatest yet for the GJAA as we have many opportunities both on a state and national level to participate in during the next 12 months. The biggest of all these events is of course the 2009 NJAS which is now less than 200 days away. I hope that if you're not already involved that you will soon volunteer. It is sure to be the highlight of 2009!

On a national level, there are several other things that you will definitely want to mark on your calendar for 2009 as well. These activities include the Southern Raise the Bar Conference that will be hosted by the National Junior Angus Board in Nashville, Tenn., during April, the Eastern Regional Angus Show that will be held in Ohio during June, and my personal favorite - the 2009 LEAD Conference that will be held in San Francisco, Calif., in August. Look for further information regarding these events and others in the next few months.

I hope that as you go through this new year that you will take advantage of the opportunities that the GJAA and NJAA offers you. These opportunities can open so many doors and introduce you to so many new people and ideas. I hope your New Year's resolution is to make 2009 the best year yet by taking advantage of all the opportunities thrown your way.

Good luck in all that you do!

Trey Davis
NJAA Foundation Director

Georgia junior named Miss American Angus

Congratulations to Katie Gazda, Athens, as she was crowned the 2009 Miss American Angus at the 2008 North American International Livestock Exposition (NAILE) Super Point Roll of Victory (ROV) Angus Show, November 17 in Louisville, Ky.

Katie, the daughter of David and Carolyn Gazda, will represent the Angus breed at numerous beef industry events during her reign. The American Angus Auxiliary sponsors the Miss American Angus contest, held annually at the NAILE. Five college freshmen compete for the honor after winning the Auxiliary's top scholarships at the National Junior Angus Show earlier in the year. The competition includes a written quiz, an interview and public speaking before a panel of three judges. Katie is the 41st Miss American Angus, and will travel the country as an ambassador for the breed.

An AAA update on Arthrogryposis Multiplex

The American Angus Association (AAA) is constantly updating the Associations website with information concerning Arthrogryposis Multiplex (AM). An updated listing of research test results provided by Dr. Jon Beever, University of Illinois on samples submitted to him on bulls from A.I. organizations is now online at www.angus.org.

Access the listing and contact information for the current AAA authorized labs conducting tests for AM at the Associations website. Currently, these services are offered at MMI Genomics in Davis, Calif., and AgriGenomics in Mansfield, Ill. Additional labs will be added to the website as they are approved.

AAA Login users can access an interactive tool to generate a report of owned animals and their AM status based on the AM test results received to date. From the AAA Login menu, go to the "Interactive" section and click on the "AM Potential Carrier Report". If you are not a current AAA Login user, visit www.angus.org to create your online profile.

For a complete listing of Arthrogryposis Multiplex (AM) information released by the American Angus Association, visit the Associations website.
